

FOOD PRODUCTION INDUSTRY IN IDAHO

A GREAT PLACE TO GROW.

Idaho ranks 7th nationally for agricultural goods and food product exports per capita, surpassing $2 billion annually.

IDAHO MAY BE KNOWN FOR ITS SPUDS, BUT OUR ROOTS IN AGRICULTURE AND FOOD PRODUCTION RUN MUCH DEEPER.

This is the big league of the food industry and the proud home to a long line of farm and food innovators.

Farming legends like J.R. Simplot have transformed Idaho from a simple agricultural producer into a global powerhouse where businesses can thrive. Several major food companies have moved their operations to the state: dairy producers, potato processors, energy bar makers, and fruit product manufacturers call Idaho home.

"We believe that no other yogurt facility is comparable to the size, technology and efficiency displayed in our new Twin Falls site."
