

IDAHO

Opportunity Zones

OPPORTUNITY ZONE PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 contains a new tax incentive for investments in low-income census tracts designated as Opportunity Zones.

Opportunity Zones are a new community development program established to encourage long-term investments in low-income urban and rural communities.

Private investment vehicles called Opportunity Funds that place 90 percent or more of their funds into an Opportunity Zone can earn tax relief on the capital gains generated through those investments. Tax benefits increase the longer investments are in place.

Each state nominated a minimum of 25 total eligible census tracts but no more than 25% of the total number of eligible census tracts within the state. Approved Idaho Opportunity Zone tracts and informational one-pagers are included herein.

For more details on Idaho Opportunity Zones visit commerce.idaho.gov/communities/opportunity-zones/.

INVESTOR BENEFITS

- Deferred capital gains taxes
- Capital gains tax reductions
- Appreciation exclusions

Tax Benefit Eligibility Guidance

In order to be eligible for the tax benefits, Opportunity Funds:

- Must be organized as a corporation or partnership
- Must be certified by the U.S. Treasury (self-certification)
- 90% of the Opportunity Fund's assets must be invested in an Opportunity Zone or Zones
- Investments may include stocks, partnership interest or real estate (substantial rehabilitation requirement)

BOISE

Idaho Opportunity Zone

OPPORTUNITY ZONE OVERVIEW

Centrally located within the City of Boise, this opportunity zone has transportation infrastructure, including rail and interstate, and benefits from significant nearby residential areas.

The area includes a diversity of land uses and employment opportunities such as the St. Alphonsus Regional Medical Center, which has realized continued investment and employment growth.

This Boise opportunity zone is approximately 3 miles from the city's downtown, the civic and employment center of Idaho.

LOCAL PRIORITIES

The current state of the census tract is a mix of heavy industrial, light industrial, residential, health services and retail. There is ample opportunity for infill development and redevelopment of this area.

This census tract lends itself well to a mixed-use development including housing, retail, office and other uses. There are a growing number of startups from a variety of industries attracted to this area due to its low lease costs, proximity to Boise State University, and proximity to housing and transportation infrastructure.

Continued western sprawl in the Boise Valley has made the Central Bench neighborhood in this zone a target for intensification and an opportunity to reimagine a neighborhood that already has essential infrastructure in place.

The neighborhood represents an opportunity to continue the City's initiatives to diversify employment (Boise Competes) and intensify residential development (Grow Our Housing) sustainably.

BOISE COMPETES

Boise Competes is the city's economic development promise to its citizens. It means the city is working hard every day to make the city the best it can be.

The goal of Boise Competes: align resources with opportunities to ensure Boise's economy remains lasting, innovative and vibrant for years to come.

GROW OUR HOUSING

Over the last several years Boise has seen tremendous vitality, with low unemployment, increased opportunity, and a growing national realization that Boise truly is becoming one of the most livable cities in the country. Boise's challenge is how to maintain the city's high livability in the face of the dramatic growth brought by this success.

Unlike other cities that have fallen victim to overwhelming housing shortages, Boise has an opportunity to sustain our livability and guide future growth. After recently completing a series of robust community conversations, housing affordability emerged as a top concern.

OPPORTUNITY ZONE OVERVIEW

This census tract contains strong and emerging central markets for industrial companies, health science and higher education organizations, regional transit groups, small businesses, and housing.

It is seen by the city as the key to connecting consumers, commuters and workers living across the Treasure Valley.

The tract has convenient freeway access, well-built local roads and an active rail corridor boasting a strong infrastructural advantage in creating long-term opportunities for profitable investment, innovation and growth.

HOUSING NEEDS

This opportunity zone incorporates a portion of the tract in the Meridian Urban Renewal District, as well as Meridian's HUD-approved Community Development Block Grant redevelopment area.

There are ongoing efforts to leverage federal and state funding in the residential and commercial areas of this tract to prevent and mitigate poverty, slum and blight, and other local needs.

Hospitality and retail employees find it difficult to live in the area due to dwindling diversity in housing options. A number of mixed-use, housing, and office developments are in various stages of entitlement in the downtown area. Surrounding industrial areas have lobbied to maintain the industrial portions, improve housing affordability and options, and retain employment in the area that contribute to the state's GDP.

HEALTH SCIENCE CORRIDOR

This corridor is marketed to attract health science and technology companies. With St. Luke's Meridian Medical Center, Idaho Urologic Institute, Idaho State University and the Idaho College of Osteopathic Medicine, this area is slated for future health science and technology clustering. The corridor creates a clear need and opportunity for a specialized and highly-skilled workforce.

RAIL CORRIDOR

The rail corridor running through this census tract houses a number of significant industrial users such as ProBuild, Scentsy, Micro100 Tool, FSA and PKG. This is an area sought after for industrial development.

This railway provides many opportunities to industrial partners across the Treasure Valley and has potential to provide future transportation options for those living throughout Boise, Meridian, Nampa and Caldwell.

LUMBER INDUSTRY

The skill sets of Boundary County citizens are predominately in the lumber industry and wood by-product sector. Due to the longevity of the industry, skills are strongest in value-added wood products and wood by-products. The most likely type of industry to develop in this census tract would be in the value-added wood products business.

FOREIGN TRADE ZONE

This opportunity zone includes a foreign trade zone. The FTZ program is in support of businesses with a U.S. location that imports parts, materials or components for manufacturing and finished goods or parts for distribution, either exported or sold in the U.S. Foreign goods and domestic goods held for export are exempt from state and local inventory taxes.

RAIL USE

There are two parcels within the opportunity zone with rail track sidings and several parcels with direct rail access. The rail track sidings parcels are ideal for inventory deliveries and final product shipping. Investors with interest in these parcels are both outside of the state and outside of the country.

COMPANY HIGHLIGHT

Bonners Ferry is home to multi-million dollar Panhandle Door, Inc., and Überleben, a modern bushcraft company known best for its fire-focused products.

A Recreation District would improve already vibrant community recreation programs.

Buhl provides a safe, family-oriented atmosphere with a completed downtown revitalization project that provides a well-lit walkable downtown area.

The revitalization of older downtown building structures would create an enticing atmosphere for various businesses.

The City of Buhl would like to see more companies re-locate in the downtown and surrounding areas to bolster existing businesses already located in the opportunity zone.

INVESTMENTS

The City of Buhl recently completed considerable water and wastewater improvements in 2016. Buhl opened two new health services businesses in early 2019.

Roadway improvements are in place to improve traffic congestion in these areas. Buhl has an existing niche trucking presence with expansion capacities.

The current opportunity zone could see a potential increase in tourism, driven by local wineries, trail systems and recreation in the Snake River corridor.

HISTORY

Clearwater County has strong ties to natural resource management and industry. Logging, lumber manufacturing, forest landscape and fisheries management represents 25% of the economy including private and public sector employers.

REC-TECH

Clearwater County experiences continuous growth and development in the recreation technology business sector with companies such as NightForce and SJX Jet Boats acting as focal points that are spurring smaller support businesses to emerge and grow.

The county is home to tool manufacturer AAA Precision Tool, and CNC Tech and NN Machine, both high quality machines shops working in the firearms, aeronautics and medical industries. Additionally, advanced welding firms are in growth mode to meet the needs of the local and regional jet boat sector.

LOCAL PRIORITIES

There is an increased need in this opportunity zone for more modern, middle class and entry-level housing.

Clearwater County is focused on diversification and building on existing clusters including jet boat and arms-related manufacturing, healthcare and value-added wood products.

Businesses and residents alike are drawn to this zone for easy access to its natural resources, low crime and rural lifestyle, but the county's natural resources also offer opportunities for land-water-air based business sectors that support existing manufacturers and healthcare. The economic development team is also working with public and private partners in attracting value added wood product companies.

Gooding continues to seek to improve their downtown district and has a vision to create an attractive, pedestrian-friendly Main Street with cross walks, street lights and improved building fronts. The city has plans to move the targeted urban renewal zone to their Main Street, the length of which is included in the opportunity zone area.

INDUSTRIAL PARK

The Urban Renewal Agency's industrial park property is primed for development and has undergone recent infrastructure upgrades. The park continues to develop relationships with its users and neighbors to expand the park as well as improve rail access.

Further development of the industrial park would be useful for Gooding, as well as the introduction of new industry to stimulate the Urban Renewal process. Additionally, this community is prioritizing business retention, affordable housing and worker training to improve workforce.

FOR INFORMATION USE ONLY. The information and statistics stated herein are based upon publicly available resources developed by other local, state, or federal entities. The Idaho Department of Commerce is not responsible for incorrect information stated herein.

INVESTMENTS

The city of Gooding recently invested significant funds and efforts into local infrastructure. These improvements include $5 million in water and $9 million in wastewater, the compilation of a 10-year road maintenance plan, the reception of an $11,000 grant for ADA curb replacements, and another $50,000 grant to fund a transportation master plan.

The city is currently working with the Corp of Engineers to replace containment walls built in the early 1940's as part of the work program.

The Gooding Airport recently installed an automated weather observation system to assist pilots with navigation and provide detailed weather information. A 635-foot runway extension project is currently in the design phase, slated for completion as early as late 2019.

AGRICULTURAL CORE

Agriculture-based industries find success in Jerome and the surrounding area. This opportunity zone may be a good option for food processing companies due to its quick access to the interstate and rail.

Due to the dairy industry's over-production of milk, milk and cheese processing has become a key priority for industry in Jerome. Businesses with interest in this industry are encouraged to consider this zone.

IMPROVING LIVABILITY

Jerome's economy includes a rapidly growing population base that has seen a 34 percent increase over a ten-year period between 2003-2013.

This growth is indicative of the regional commitment to infrastructure investments targeted to develop a sound economic environment, favorable to business and development.

Affordable, non-subsidized housing, is very important to the city of Jerome. Various professionals that work in Jerome have to live in neighboring towns due to lack of such housing and commute.

Other priorities include retail growth in ways that are different than neighboring cities. Mixed-use commercial projects that bring different services and products to the city's industry mix are intriguing, and improving the city's downtown is vital to its sustainability.

NORTHWEST PASSAGE SCENIC BYWAY

Investors intrigued by the opportunity to establish businesses in the recreation technology or tourism industries will be drawn to the Northwest Passage Scenic Byway. This byway is Idaho's longest byway, which at 202 miles, follows the route Lewis and Clark took through north-central Idaho.

This route begins on US Highway 12 at Lewiston and traverses the Clearwater River Canyon. At Kooskia, the byway splits with one segment heading south on Idaho Highway 13 toward the Camas Prairie and the town of Grangeville. Another segment continues east on US Highway 12 along the Middle Fork of the Clearwater River and the Lochsa Wild and Scenic River, culminating at the Lolo Pass Visitor Center in Montana.

Community leaders are progressive in their approach for future growth and are ready to pursue opportunities that are conducive to the growth and retention of the city's workforce.

Any development that will bring quality jobs and benefits, as well as private sector investments, will increase the median income and lower poverty rates.

The strength of the region is agriculturally based. Commodities in the region are exported statewide, nationally and internationally. Rupert has seen tremendous growth in the food processing, food storage, research and development, and other agronomic based sectors. This growth has caused the need for housing developments and new construction.

New businesses in the Rupert area would be best served as food processing, transportation, and construction industry sectors.

HISTORY

Rupert's historic business district is listed on the National Register of Historic Places and surrounds a beautiful town square that is also on the historic register.

The historic Rupert Square is an active district featuring many businesses and community events throughout the year.

BUSINESS CULTURE

Rupert is a hub for food manufacturing and home to a number of cheese and potato processing facilities including Aarrowhead Potato Company and swiss cheese production company, Brewster Cheese.

Due to its proximity to a railroad, highway and interstate, Rupert is an ideal location for all forms of manufacturing, including custom trailer company, IMCO-Idaho.

DOWNTOWN PRIORITIES

This opportunity zone includes a large portion of the downtown core, regional shopping center, high performing commercial corridor and a number of residential neighborhoods. Like many communities, the downtown struggled to compete with development of new commercial business on the urban edge. In the last decade, private reinvestment in downtown has included new entertainment and restaurant establishments and the relocation of EMSI to this area. However, much of the downtown public infrastructure and buildings remain in need of renovation and reinvestment.

Some residential neighborhoods surrounding downtown and the University of Idaho campus have suffered from a lack of maintenance and reinvestment over many years. Due to their central location and proximity to the university, these neighborhoods are well-positioned for redevelopment to increase residential opportunities.

The Palouse Mall in the western portion of the zone is a 400,000 square foot shopping center in need of significant reinvestment to revitalize the more than 400 jobs lost in the community during the closure of retail establishments in this space.

INVESTMENT STORIES

Northwest River Supplies (NRS), a premier international whitewater rafting supplier located in Moscow, acquired a vacant 42,000 square foot grocery store in 2006 to meet their growing need for product storage and processing space. In 2018, NRS started a 100,000 square foot, $15 million expansion project in the same location to consolidate their operations in a modern, efficient and attractive facility.

Gritman Medical Center recently completed a 54,000 square foot, $16 million medical office complex in downtown Moscow, expanding local medical service delivery to the region. The new facility houses a clinic that provides income-based medical and dental services, a cardiac rehabilitation center, oncology services and an anatomy lab for the University of Idaho's medical education program.

Fields Hold and CA Ventures selected a prior brownfield site on the edge of the University of Idaho campus as the location for the development of a $24 million, mixed-use project called "Identity" that includes 134 apartment units and 3,000 square feet of retail space. The project was completed in the fall of 2018.

OPPORTUNITY ZONE OVERVIEW

This opportunity zone includes southwest and southern Moscow, the University of Idaho campus and the Legacy Crossing Urban Renewal District. This zone may be ideal for attracting venture capital and investment in new mixed use development, revitalized multifamily rental housing, and new industrial and advanced manufacturing facilities.

Currently the city has three primary economic development focuses including: redevelopment of the prior agricultural and industrial area, expansion of light industrial and advanced manufacturing sectors, and the continued reinvestment and revitalization of downtown Moscow.

INVESTMENT SITES

INVESTMENT RECOMMENDATIONS

The University of Idaho campus provides the optimal site to facilitate a public/private partnership in the development of housing and athletic facilities. Since the founding of the University in 1889, it has been an integral component of the local economy. The economic activity associated with the University constitutes 50% of the local economy and each student enrolled on campus in Moscow represents over $50,000 in local spending and economic contribution.

The Legacy Crossing Urban Renewal District is ideal for the redevelopment of the historic agricultural/industrial area to connect the University campus and downtown Moscow.

The south-Moscow location offers premier access to state and national highways and is a location the community identified as an ideal site for industrial development.

LOCAL PRIORITIES

Elmore County, where this opportunity zone is located, is currently working to extend Foreign Trade Zone #280 to include all of Elmore County. The Foreign Trade Zone will help better position the area for private investment. This will have a direct impact on recruitment efforts for a proposed industrial park and new housing in large-phased subdivisions.

A major goal for this opportunity zone is the attraction of private investment in housing to alleviate the housing shortage and better support Mountain Home Air Force Base with potential expansion and basing decisions in the future.

INVESTMENTS

Mountain Home recently completed a downtown master redevelopment plan which will result in approximately $2.2 million in improvements to underground utilities, streets and sidewalks. The improved walkability and aesthetics is likely to attract both visitors and investment.

Mountain Home has acquired 6.39 miles of railroad main and 0.55 miles of siding from the United States Air Force to develop an industrial park along with a private investor in the contiguous tract 16039960400. The proposed rail park will be approximately 350 acres with a potential to be larger.

The investor plans to invest in infrastructure at this site to ensure the railway meets Union Pacific standards, while also upgrading the infrastructure in the area.

NAMPA

Idaho Opportunity Zone

OPPORTUNITY ZONE OVERVIEW

Located just north of downtown Nampa, this opportunity zone contains the iconic Lakeview Park and several historic homes.

This census tract is one of the most impoverished tracts in the Treasure Valley. The area lacks a grocery store and contains several vacant commercial properties that are currently ripe for redevelopment.

Community improvements, including a pathway along Indian Creek, are planned to help spur residential redevelopment.

LOCAL PRIORITIES

In 2013, the opportunity zone lost Paul's Market, its local grocery store. The closing of the grocery store resulted in a significant loss of access to healthy, fresh food. Community partners are very interested in bringing a small grocery store back to the neighborhood.

Additionally, this opportunity zone has numerous zoning designations supporting a wide variety of housing, commercial and industrial land uses.

Long-term plans in this zone call for a continuous pathway along Indian Creek. Once complete, this pathway will likely spur residential redevelopment outside of the Indian Creek floodway.

MAIN STREET

Nearby downtown Nampa is accredited as a Main Street Community by the National Main Street Center due to the city's dedication to revitalize the downtown district through preservation-based economic development and community revitalization.

ACCOLADES

Nampa was named the No. 1 best-run city in the United States by WalletHub in 2017.

In 2015, Nampa was named No. 8 in the top ten most affordable places to live in the United States, according to Livability.com.

NEW MEADOWS

Idaho Opportunity Zone

OPPORTUNITY ZONE OVERVIEW

The mission of New Meadows is to provide citizens with a safe and clean community while developing a vibrant, diverse economy.

This opportunity zone covers New Meadows and the northern part of Adams County, including both the Tamarack Mill and Brundage Mountain ski resorts.

In recent years, the city has passed bonds for water and sewer improvement, making the area shovel-ready for commercial, residential and light industrial development.

The zone also contains a number of geothermal wells to be developed for recreational and agricultural use.

INVESTMENT SITES

LOCAL PRIORITIES

The City of New Meadows self-identifies as a food desert because the closest grocery store is over 12 miles away from town, making access to fresh food difficult during inclement weather or emergencies. The city does have buildings that may suffice as a grocery store, but there is currently very little capital to build some of the basic infrastructure needed for commerce.

There is also an extreme need for appropriate, affordable and safe housing in New Meadows. Within the city, citizens earn far less income than the rest of the census tract population. The city has recently passed two large bonds to improve the local water and sewer systems, making them shovel-ready for housing additions.

INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Due to the proximity to local ski resorts, golf courses and mountain playgrounds, recreational manufacturing companies, including research, development and tourism services, would do well in New Meadows.

The central Idaho location of New Meadows and its prime location at the junction of US Highway 95 and Idaho State Highway 55 makes this opportunity zone a viable location for commercial transportation and warehousing.

The city's most recent comprehensive plan included services the citizens would welcome into the community such as a car wash, gift shops, office spaces, veterinary clinics, bowling alley, recreation center with a gym, pharmacy, movie theater, day care, laundry and dry cleaning services.

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

The City of Lewiston is a designated entitlement grantee of Community Development Block Grant funds that are directed to economic development, elimination of slum and blight, and benefit low to moderate income residents of the city.

LAND USE

The zone includes 11 acres of undeveloped land situated next to the downtown waterfront and is within easy walking distance of Lewiston's downtown historic area, as well as access to restaurants, cafes, gift shops and the town's art hub. There are ample opportunities for river activities and walking paths.

LOCAL PRIORITIES

The city's vision is to provide zoning that allows multi-use on parcels of land that support higher density, higher people activities and more recreational leisure food access while supporting services, businesses and increasing downtown living via commercial and residential mixed use capabilities.

Lewiston's vision is for an increase in low to moderate-income housing where infill can provide safe and visually appealing street and walking path designs.

Neighborhood commercial businesses providing goods and services in the area would be an added benefit.

NEZ PERCE HISTORY

The Nez Perce Tribe or “Niimiipuu” (The People) originally occupied the vast territory, estimated at 13 million acres, in what is now north central Idaho, southeast Washington and northeast Oregon. The Nez Perce were small but mighty. They lived in many villages and were led by principle chiefs or sub chiefs of the villages.

Today, the Nez Perce Tribe is a federally recognized tribal nation and is consistently one of the top three regional employers in North Idaho, contributing millions of dollars to Idaho’s economy.

INDUSTRY AND BUSINESS POTENTIAL

The Nez Perce Tribe Opportunity Zone is ideal for businesses in the biomass industry, environmental cleanup and monitoring, retail businesses based on scenic beauty and small town authenticity, recreational businesses, or light manufacturing.

Clearwater County, home of the Nez Perce Tribe, has a heritage of logging and agriculture, and many businesses in the area historically supported these industries.

NOTABLE BUSINESS

There is a strong agriculture base with complimentary businesses continuing to grow in Parma. Recent expansions include Nutrient Services, Parma Equipment Company, Top Air Irrigators and Riverside Inc.

Parma is home to Western Labs, a major water and soil testing lab that also operates an education center for regional agricultural industries. Western Labs is the world's largest potato and onion testing laboratory. The JC Watson Company, also located in Parma, has been established since 1912 and is a global leader in growing, packing and shipping fresh onions year-round.

This area is well-suited to support agricultural processing and agricultural support industries due to the excellent transportation network of highways and rail and the proximity to productive farmland.

WHY PARMA?

In the last decade, an estimated $5 million worth of business infrastructure improvements have been built within the impact area of greater Parma. From state-of-the-art onion storage to new and remodeled agriculture equipment production facilities, a new pharmacy and dental offices, Parma is where growth is occurring. For employers looking for a small-town feel with acreage lots available, low student-to-teacher ratios, lower cost of real estate within striking distance of all the best southwest Idaho has to offer, Parma is a good choice.

LOCAL PRIORITIES

There is a need for housing, whether it be starter homes, mid-level or high-end housing. The rental housing market generally runs at 0% vacancy rate. With the growing businesses in the area, the housing supply needs are also increasing drastically.

LOCAL PRIORITIES

Continued revitalization of the Old Town Pocatello area remains a focus for the City of Pocatello. Rehabilitation of historic buildings, such as the Peterson Building, would continue to breathe life into the area. The majority of the businesses in the area are small, local businesses, and diversifying the types of commercial offerings in the area is a point of emphasis.

Pocatello remains committed to having decent, safe, affordable housing in this tract as well as throughout the community.

NeighborWorks recently completed a rebranding effort to raise the profile of this historic residential area. The City also works closely with NeighborWorks Pocatello to further their mission of neighborhood revitalization and provision of affordable housing, which is a need and priority both in this census tract and throughout the Pocatello community.

DEVELOPMENT GOALS

Significant public investment has been made for several years, including upgrading public infrastructure. Investment and redevelopment in this area, where infrastructure is already available, reduces the cost to the community and the developer vs. extending public services to new development.

There is an increased effort to connect the Idaho State University campus to the Historic Warehouse District and Old Town Pocatello through complete street techniques.

This is being done to encourage redevelopment in the area. Recently, the city hosted a “Build a Better Block” event, highlighting potential streetscape improvements that could further this connection.

Idaho State University is the state’s lead institution in health professions.

POST FALLS

Idaho Opportunity Zone

OPPORTUNITY ZONE OVERVIEW

The City of Post Falls has long seen this Opportunity Zone as a critical piece to the city's identity, economic development and downtown core. It is regarded as a recreational gem.

The Post Falls Opportunity Zone provides the city with an important tool to assist with developing the area into a vibrant gathering place for its citizens to enjoy, resulting in tourism growth and an increased housing for the workforce labor market.

In order to assist with increased growth, the city believes the addition of more medical and commercial facilities, along with housing, is needed in this area.

URBAN RENEWAL

On the west side of the census tract, the Post Falls Urban Renewal Agency has invested over $1 million in street improvements, including new sidewalks, pavement, median planters and more. The city also built a new City Hall facility and expanded the City Hall campus.

The URA has designated the east side of the census tract as the East Post Falls Urban Renewal District. This district includes the newly built Spencer Street, which relieves congestion previously common to this area. The URA also built the Greensferry Bridge over I-90, connecting the north side of Post Falls to this tract.

The Spencer Street and Greensferry Bridge projects exceeded $16 million in investments with the intent to encourage additional private investment in the area.

RECREATION

Post Falls purchased 500 acres south of the census tract, known as the Community Forest. The city intends to develop this site as a multi-use nature area, allowing for recreational opportunity, while providing an opportunity to reuse highly-treated Class A reclaimed water for irrigation.

LOCAL PRIORITIES

With recent predictions of dramatic traffic increases along I-90, the city believes the addition of more medical, commercial and housing developments are needed in this area.

Additionally, parking for this area is a critical element to continue the development of commercial sites. The city is currently reviewing potential locations and parking area types as part of the City Center Parking Plan.

LOCAL PRIORITIES

US Highway 95 doubles as Main Street in Riggins. Therefore, public parking is a large need for the community, particularly as the city continues to become a popular tourist attraction for fishermen, white water rafters, hikers and outdoor enthusiasts.

Affordable housing for the workforce is also in demand. A number of years ago, a housing development was considered on an old mill site property, but the project did not materialize. The city's water and sewer infrastructure may not currently be adequate to serve a large housing development.

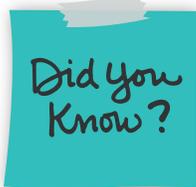

INVESTMENT RECOMMENDATIONS

The geographic setting of this tract makes it a prime location for recreation and tourism opportunities. Riggins has a growing reputation for its fishing and whitewater rafting, along with all other outdoor attractions and activities that are abundant in the area. The Main Salmon and Little Salmon rivers in close proximity make this a prime location for a swiftwater rescue training site.

Riggins is also a hot spot for the growing of grapes for wine. According to the Idaho Wine Commission, Riggins is one of three areas in the state dubbed an Idaho Growing Region. An initial vision for the Salmon River Wine Initiative was developed in 2013.

The forest products industry would find available resources in the area advantageous to their business. Outdoor equipment and small manufacturing are also considered viable business opportunities in the area.

Riggins is known as the Whitewater Capital of the World, but there's more than water to be seen. Visitors can take advantage of the Seven Devils Mountains and Hells Canyon National Recreation Area southwest of town or cheer on riders at the famous Riggins Rodeo in early May.

SANDPOINT

Idaho Opportunity Zone

OPPORTUNITY ZONE OVERVIEW

This opportunity zone encompasses downtown Sandpoint and shoreline along Lake Pend Oreille and Sand Creek, and is part of Idaho's growing aerospace and technology industry.

With the completion of the US 95 bypass, the City is employing several strategies to revitalize its downtown and encourage mixed use residential development and historic preservation within the zone.

Industries that will likely thrive in this opportunity zone are the hotel, retail, restaurant and entertainment industries, as well as technology and software.

INVESTMENT SITES

LOCAL PRIORITIES

The City of Sandpoint has made economic development a top priority and has worked to foster lasting partnerships with local business, both large and small.

Additional local priorities include completion of a fiber build-out and provision of a redundant loop. Most areas of the city, including the downtown, have access to a gigabit of synchronous fiber at affordable rates, and providers continue to build out the network.

Parks and trail planning remain a priority for Sandpoint, including a parks master planning effort and a multi-modal, city-wide transportation plan.

The watershed master plan completion will include a recreation element and the city is also working with the Union Pacific Railroad to acquire and complete a community trail that will connect to the City of Ponderay and provide additional recreational opportunities to underserved populations.

FOR INFORMATION USE ONLY. The information and statistics stated herein are based upon publicly available resources developed by other local, state, or federal entities. The Idaho Department of Commerce is not responsible for incorrect information stated herein.

CITY GROWTH

The area is one of the fastest growing micropolitan regions in the country, with 5% growth according to 2017 Census data.

The city implemented a downtown revitalization plan worth over $8 million, including a complete rebuild of the downtown streets including expanded sidewalks, utilities, stormwater planters, lighting and other furnishings.

The aerospace sector in Sandpoint continues to thrive with expansions of Quest Aircraft and Tamarack Aerospace Group.

Sandpoint also boasts an established biomedical sector including Biomedical Innovations, Percussionaire and Unicep Packaging.

In the tech sector, Kochava continues to expand to now approximately 100 employees.

Litehouse Foods recently completed an expansion of their manufacturing facility and Schweitzer Mountain Ski Resort constructed a new lodge and is slated to install new chair lifts next year.

For businesses downtown, sales are generally up and two new breweries recently opened, along with new restaurants.

LOCAL PRIORITIES

Housing is a top priority for this opportunity zone. The county's proximity to Coeur d'Alene has created a rise in the real estate market, and multi-family dwellings and newer residential homes are in short supply. Affordable housing is quickly becoming a major concern for the area.

To support housing developments as well as other investments, new water lines, sewer lines and pavement have been placed through most of the Silver Valley.

In addition to housing needs, the county is focused on creating a more inviting place to raise a family. This includes investment in educational opportunities for higher compensated jobs, as well as creating a more attractive community environment. Kellogg has an "uptown" that currently has a ghost town feel to it. The town is in need of businesses to fill store fronts.

INVESTMENTS

The three communities in this zone are a part of a Superfund site. This designation creates unique grant and redevelopment funding opportunities.

Infrastructure and recreational upgrades have been made in the communities including the 72-mile, award-winning Trail of the Coeur d'Alene's and wetland habitat revitalization. Over 7,000 properties within the Superfund site boundaries have been remediated and more than 1,800 acres of cleaned-up property have been transferred for economic development projects.

Additional recent investment projects include a technology and innovation hub, including residential, retail and office space. A large investor has also purchased several properties to be rehabilitated for office space and mixed use space. Several of those properties are available for lease or purchase, and are either shovel-ready or move-in ready.

REC-TECH

St. Maries boasts significant access to fishing, golf, boat racing, water sports, biking, camping and a variety of winter sports, making it an ideal location for recreation technology companies.

St. Maries is currently home to PEET Dryer, a patented shoe-drying company known for its innovative products that keep boots, gloves and more dry and ready for the next adventure. PEET's employees love the outdoors and have been taking advantage of the adventures in their backyard for over 50 years, proving that the St. Maries workforce is loyal and innovative.

St. Maries' largest annual event, Paul Bunyon Days, includes three days of logging competitions, water events, a demolition derby and more.
