Opportunity Zones

OPPORTUNITY ZONE PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 contains a new tax incentive for investments in low-income census tracts designated as Opportunity Zones.

Opportunity Zones are a new community development program established to encourage long-term investments in low-income urban and rural communities.

Private investment vehicles called Opportunity Funds that place 90 percent or more of their funds into an Opportunity Zone can earn tax relief on the capital gains generated through those investments. Tax benefits increase the longer investments are in place.

Each state nominated a minimum of 25 total eligible census tracts but no more than 25% of the total number of eligible census tracts within the state. Approved Idaho Opportunity Zone tracts and informational one-pagers are included herein.

For more details on Idaho Opportunity Zones visit commerce.idaho.gov/communities/opportunity-zones/.

INVESTOR BENEFITS

- Deferred capital gains taxes
- Capital gains tax reductions
- Appreciation exclusions

OPPORTUNITY ZONE OVERVIEW

Centrally located within the City of Boise, this opportunity zone has transportation infrastructure, including rail and interstate, and benefits from significant nearby residential areas.

The area includes a diversity of land uses and employment opportunities such as the St. Alphonsus Regional Medical Center, which has realized continued investment and employment growth.

This Boise opportunity zone is approximately 3 miles from the city’s downtown, the civic and employment center of Idaho.

WHAT’S IN THE ZONE?

1. Access to Interstate 84 and Interstate 184
2. Close proximity to downtown
3. Quick access to Boise Airport

INVESTMENT SITES

1. 1200 N. Curtis Road
   Previous industrial use, 6.03 acres/263,000 sq. feet, leaseable on 5 acres with 1 acre accessory parking lot

2. 34 South Cole Road
   Formerly a school, now a vacant lot of 8.56 acres/373,000 sq. feet
LOCAL PRIORITIES
The current state of the census tract is a mix of heavy industrial, light industrial, residential, health services and retail. There is ample opportunity for infill development and redevelopment of this area.

This census tract lends itself well to a mixed-use development including housing, retail, office and other uses. There are a growing number of startups from a variety of industries attracted to this area due to its low lease costs, proximity to Boise State University, and proximity to housing and transportation infrastructure.

Continued western sprawl in the Boise Valley has made the Central Bench neighborhood in this zone a target for intensification and an opportunity to re-imagine a neighborhood that already has essential infrastructure in place.

The neighborhood represents an opportunity to continue the City’s initiatives to diversify employment (Boise Competes) and intensify residential development (Grow Our Housing) sustainably.

BOISE COMPETES
Boise Competes is the city’s economic development promise to its citizens. It means the city is working hard every day to make the city the best it can be.

The goal of Boise Competes: align resources with opportunities to ensure Boise’s economy remains lasting, innovative and vibrant for years to come.

GROW OUR HOUSING
Over the last several years Boise has seen tremendous vitality, with low unemployment, increased opportunity, and a growing national realization that Boise truly is becoming one of the most livable cities in the country. Boise’s challenge is how to maintain the city’s high livability in the face of the dramatic growth brought by this success.

Unlike other cities that have fallen victim to overwhelming housing shortages, Boise has an opportunity to sustain our livability and guide future growth. After recently completing a series of robust community conversations, housing affordability emerged as a top concern.
OPPORTUNITY ZONE OVERVIEW

This census tract contains strong and emerging central markets for industrial companies, health science and higher education organizations, regional transit groups, small businesses, and housing.

It is seen by the city as the key to connecting consumers, commuters and workers living across the Treasure Valley.

The tract has convenient freeway access, well-built local roads and an active rail corridor boasting a strong infrastructural advantage in creating long-term opportunities for profitable investment, innovation and growth.

There are ongoing efforts to leverage federal and state funding in the residential and commercial areas of this tract to prevent and mitigate poverty, slum and blight, and other local needs.

Hospitality and retail employees find it difficult to live in the area due to dwindling diversity in housing options. A number of mixed-use, housing, and office developments are in various stages of entitlement in the downtown area. Surrounding industrial areas have lobbied to maintain the industrial portions, improve housing affordability and options, and retain employment in the area that contribute to the state’s GDP.

HEALTH SCIENCE CORRIDOR

This corridor is marketed to attract health science and technology companies. With St. Luke’s Meridian Medical Center, Idaho Urologic Institute, Idaho State University and the Idaho College of Osteopathic Medicine, this area is slated for future health science and technology clustering. The corridor creates a clear need and opportunity for a specialized and highly-skilled workforce.

RAIL CORRIDOR

The rail corridor running through this census tract houses a number of significant industrial users such as ProBuild, Scentsy, Micro100 Tool, FSA and PKG. This is an area sought after for industrial development.

This railway provides many opportunities to industrial partners across the Treasure Valley and has potential to provide future transportation options for those living throughout Boise, Meridian, Nampa and Caldwell.

LOCAL PRIORITIES

Elmore County, where this opportunity zone is located, is currently working to extend Foreign Trade Zone #280 to include all of Elmore County. The Foreign Trade Zone will help better position the area for private investment. This will have a direct impact on recruitment efforts for a proposed industrial park and new housing in large-phased subdivisions.

INVESTMENTS

Mountain Home recently completed a downtown master redevelopment plan which will result in approximately $2.2 million in improvements to underground utilities, streets and sidewalks. The improved walkability and aesthetics is likely to attract both visitors and investment.

Mountain Home has acquired 6.39 miles of railroad main and 0.55 miles of siding from the United States Air Force to develop an industrial park along with a private investor in the contiguous tract 16039960400. The proposed rail park will be approximately 350 acres with a potential to be larger.

3. 512 16th Avenue North
   0.3 acres, three separate lots.
LOCAL PRIORITIES
In 2013, the opportunity zone lost Paul’s Market, its local grocery store. The closing of the grocery store resulted in a significant loss of access to healthy, fresh food. Community partners are very interested in bringing a small grocery store back to the neighborhood.

Additionally, this opportunity zone has numerous zoning designations supporting a wide variety of housing, commercial and industrial land uses.

Long-term plans in this zone call for a continuous pathway along Indian Creek. Once complete, this pathway will likely spur residential redevelopment outside of the Indian Creek floodway.

MAIN STREET
Nearby downtown Nampa is accredited as a Main Street Community by the National Main Street Center due to the city’s dedication to revitalize the downtown district through preservation-based economic development and community revitalization.

ACCOLADES

OPPORTUNITY ZONE OVERVIEW

The mission of New Meadows is to provide citizens with a safe and clean community while developing a vibrant, diverse economy.

In recent years, the city has passed bonds for water and sewer improvement, making the area shovel-ready for commercial, residential and light industrial development.

This opportunity zone covers New Meadows and the northern part of Adams County, including both the Tamarack Mill and Brundage Mountain ski resorts.

The zone also contains a number of geothermal wells to be developed for recreational and agricultural use.

WHAT’S IN THE ZONE?

Access to ski hills including Tamarack Mill, Brundage Mountain and Little Ski Hill

Sits at the junction of US Highway 95 and Idaho State Highway 55

Near regional airports including Meadows Valley Airport and McCall Airport

INVESTMENT SITES

1. 310 Virginia Street
   Prime-location store front on US Highway 95, formerly a sporting goods store.

2. 3100 Idaho Highway 55
   0.45 acre lot ideal for commercial development. City water runs to the lot with access to nearby sewer.
LOCAL PRIORITIES
The City of New Meadows self-identifies as a food desert because the closest grocery store is over 12 miles away from town, making access to fresh food difficult during inclement weather or emergencies. The city does have buildings that may suffice as a grocery store, but there is currently very little capital to build some of the basic infrastructure needed for commerce.

INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITIES
Due to the proximity to local ski resorts, golf courses and mountain playgrounds, recreational manufacturing companies, including research, development and tourism services, would do well in New Meadows.

There is also an extreme need for appropriate, affordable and safe housing in New Meadows. Within the city, citizens earn far less income than the rest of the census tract population. The city has recently passed two large bonds to improve the local water and sewer systems, making them shovel-ready for housing additions.

The central Idaho location of New Meadows and its prime location at the junction of US Highway 95 and Idaho State Highway 55 makes this opportunity zone a viable location for commercial transportation and warehousing.

The city’s most recent comprehensive plan included services the citizens would welcome into the community such as a car wash, gift shops, office spaces, veterinary clinics, bowling alley, recreation center with a gym, pharmacy, movie theater, day care, laundry and dry cleaning services.
LEWISTON

The port contains many shovel-ready industrial properties, including a vacant riverfront parcel suitable for a cruise ship dock and RV park.

WHAT’S IN THE ZONE?

LAND USE
The zone includes 11 acres of undeveloped land situated next to the downtown waterfront and is within easy walking distance of Lewiston’s downtown historic area, as well as access to restaurants, cafes, gift shops and the town’s art hub. There are ample opportunities for river activities and walking paths.

LOCAL PRIORITIES
The city’s vision is to provide zoning that allows multi-use on parcels of land that support higher density, higher people activities and more recreational leisure food access while supporting services, businesses and increasing downtown living via commercial and residential mixed use capabilities.

Lewiston’s vision is for an increase in low to moderate-income housing where infill can provide safe and visually appealing street and walking path designs.

Neighborhood commercial businesses providing goods and services in the area would be an added benefit.

There is a strong agriculture base with complimentary businesses continuing to grow in Parma. Recent expansions include Nutrient Services, Parma Equipment Company, Top Air Irrigators and Riverside Inc. Parma is home to Western Labs, a major water and soil testing lab that also operates an education center for regional agricultural industries. LOCAL PRIORITIES
Continued revitalization of the Old Town Pocatello area remains a focus for the City of Pocatello. Rehabilitation of historic buildings, such as the Peterson Building, would continue to breathe life into the area. The majority of the businesses in the area are small, local businesses, and diversifying the types of commercial offerings in the area is a point of emphasis.

Pocatello remains committed to having decent, safe, affordable housing in this tract as well as throughout the community.

NeighborWorks recently completed a rebranding effort to raise the profile of this historic residential area. The City also works closely with NeighborWorks Pocatello to further their mission of neighborhood revitalization and provision of affordable housing, which is a need and priority both in this census tract and throughout the Pocatello community.

DEVELOPMENT GOALS
Significant public investment has been made for several years, including upgrading public infrastructure. Investment and redevelopment in this area, where infrastructure is already available, reduces the cost to the community and the developer vs. extending public services to new development.

There is an increased effort to connect the Idaho State University campus to the Historic Warehouse District and Old Town Pocatello through complete street techniques.

This is being done to encourage redevelopment in the area. Recently, the city hosted a “Build a Better Block” event, highlighting potential streetscape improvements that could further this connection.

The URA also built the Greensferry Bridge over I-90, connecting the north side of Post Falls to this tract.

LOCAL PRIORITIES

Housing is a top priority for this opportunity zone. The county’s proximity to Coeur d’Alene has created a rise in the real estate market, and multi-family dwellings and newer residential homes are in short supply. Affordable housing is quickly becoming a major concern for the area.

To support housing developments as well as other investments, new water lines, sewer lines and pavement have been placed through most of the Silver Valley.

In addition to housing needs, the county is focused on creating a more inviting place to raise a family. This includes investment in educational opportunities for higher compensated jobs, as well as creating a more attractive community environment. Kellogg has an “uptown” that currently has a ghost town feel to it. The town is in need of businesses to fill store fronts.

INVESTMENTS

The three communities in this zone are a part of a Superfund site. This designation creates unique grant and redevelopment funding opportunities. Infrastructure and recreational upgrades have been made in the communities including the 72-mile, award-winning Trail of the Coeur d’Alene’s and wetland habitat revitalization. Over 7,000 properties within the Superfund site boundaries have been addressed and more than 1,800 acres of cleaned-up property have been transferred for economic development projects.

Additional recent investment projects include a technology and innovation hub, including residential, retail and office space.
