

Idaho Incentives at a Glance

Idaho's vibrant population, pro-business culture, unmatched quality of life and conservative approach to governing — both from a regulatory and budget standpoint — create an environment for businesses and employees to thrive.

Recently, Idaho lowered corporate and top personal income tax rates to 5.3%, making Idaho even more competitive for both existing businesses and attracting new businesses to the state.

ALL BUSINESSES ARE ELIGIBLE FOR:

- 3% investment tax credit on all new tangible personal property (machinery and equipment).
- Personal property tax exemption on the first $250,000 of personal property, such as equipment and furnishings.
- 5% tax credit on qualified research expenses.
- Idaho's electricity companies offer energy conservation rebates through efficient energy use up to $100,000 per year, per site. For more information contact your local provider.

IDAHO BUSINESS ADVANTAGE

Businesses that invest at least $500,000 in new facilities and create at least 10 new jobs paying $40,000 annually plus benefits, with additional jobs paying an average of $15.50 per hour during project period, may qualify for:

- An enhanced investment tax credit on tangible personal property of 3.75%.
- A new jobs tax credit from $1,500-$3,000 for new jobs paying $24.04 per hour or more.
- A 2.5% investment tax credit on real property.
- A 25% rebate on sales tax paid during the project period.
- Upon request of the business, the local county commissioners may also authorize a partial or full property tax exemption for up to 5 years.

TAX REIMBURSEMENT INCENTIVE (TRI)

If your business is adding or bringing high-paying jobs to Idaho, you may be eligible for the Idaho Tax Reimbursement Incentive.

To qualify, a company must create 20 new jobs in rural communities (population of 25,000 or less) or 50 in urban areas. These jobs must be at or above the average county wage.

This post-performance incentive awards a maximum credit of 30% on income, payroll withholdings and sales taxes for up to 15 years.
